FINE ART - FINE CRAFT

Coordinator: Ellen Campbell, Fairfax

Assistant Coordinator & Installer: Katya McCulloch, San Anselmo

Assistant Coordinator & Installer: Wendy Goldberg, San Anselmo

Jurors - Two-Dimensional

Barbra J. Fortier, Napa

Barbra Fortier was the Art Coordinator for the Napa Valley Mustard Festival and Sonoma's Salute to the Arts for many years. She has worked as a gallery assistant at I. Wolk Gallery, St. Helena, and is currently working at Terra Firma Gallery in Sonoma. A self-taught painter who employs various mediums, Ms. Fortier served as a photographic editor for several years and is known for her "good eye".

Gwen Manfrin, Orinda

Bay Area artist, Gwen Manfrin is a graduate of UCLA in Fine Arts/Painting, Sculpture and Graphic Arts. Gwen works with several different medias including acrylic, colored pencils, charcoal, graphite and photography. Her work has been seen in many Bay Area galleries including the Bedford Gallery – Walnut Creek, Andrea Schwartz Gallery – San Francisco, Solomon Dubnick Gallery – Sacramento and Gallery Route One – Point Reyes Station. Her current body of work is comprised of mixed media paintings and drawings exploring human emotions.

Mark Perlman, Sebastopol

Mark Perlman was born near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in 1950 in a small steel mill town. During his youth he was interested in sports and art. He attended Clarion University on a wrestling scholarship and quickly discovered that his true calling was painting. Mark transferred to Eastern Michigan then finished his graduate work at West Virginia University. He left his first university teaching job in Pennsylvania for a five year stint at the University of Texas, El Paso. For the past 25 years he has taught painting at Sonoma State University. Mark Perlman has shown internationally in New York, Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Russia, Japan and recently, in Beijing China. He has been working in encaustic painting for the past 30 years.

Jurors - Three-Dimensional

▶ Arthur Gonzalez, Alameda

Arthur Gonzalez is an internationally exhibiting artist with over fifty one-person shows in the last thirty years, including seven in Manhattan, New York. He has received many awards including the Virginia Groot Foundation twice and is an unprecedented four-time recipient of the National Endowment of the Arts Fellowship within a ten-year period. He is a tenured Professor at the California College of the Arts (formerly CCAC) where he was chair of the ceramics program from 1995-2006. Gonzalez has been an artist-in-residence in many places including University of Georgia, Athens, Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, Penland School of Craft, North Carolina, University of Akron in Ohio, Tainan National University in Taiwan, and Pilchuck Glass School in Washington.

▶ Patricia Kirkish, Healdsburg

Over the past ten years, Patricia Kirkish and her husband, Steve, have created and managed Dovetail Collection, one of the finest galleries of three dimensional functional art in Northern California. The gallery has built a nationwide reputation for its incredible collection of American handcraft, with an emphasis on fine wood furniture. Ms. Kirkish evaluates three-dimensional works across a set of criteria which includes artistic originality, craftsmanship, functionality and emotional appeal. As both a collector and promoter of fine craft, she invests considerable time in supporting the local craft community and mentoring emerging artists.

▶ John Toki, Richmond

John Toki, formerly a faculty member at the California College of the Arts, has maintained a sculpture studio in Richmond, since 1974. He has completed public commissions for the cities of Berkeley, Sacramento, and Oakland, and has exhibited at the Oakland Museum, Carnegie Museum, and the Contemporary Art Center, Cincinnati. Toki is the co-author of several ceramic textbooks, and is also the Associate Producer of SCULPTCAST, Conversations about Sculpture, and Associate Director of Mission Clay Arts and Industry Program. In addition to his art practice, Toki is the owner of Leslie Ceramic Supply Company. He supports community arts as Co-Director of CAA, Ceramics Annual of America, and as a trustee for the Richmond Art Center.

- Late Storage Fee → $5 PER DAY FOR EACH ENTRY
NOT PICKED UP ON TIME. THIS RULE WILL BE ENFORCED.

1. Local and State Rules govern this competition.
2. Eligibility: Open to all living United States artists, 19 years and over. Works of art previously shown at the Marin County Fair are not eligible. All entries must be original design and must have been completed within the last two years.
3. Entry Fees Are Non-Refundable.
4. Entry Limit: Eight works per artist. A set (if it was designed by the artist to be displayed/sold only as a unit) is considered one entry. Due to excessive entries in some classes, there may be high competition for selection and awards.
5. Eligible Work:
  - a. Wall-hung works may not exceed 8 feet in height or be of excessive weight.
  - b. Two-dimensional works must be framed and have screw eyes or mirror (d-ring) hangers with braided wire. Unframed canvases must have painted/finished sides. Clip frames (glass with clips and no moulding) are not acceptable.
  - c. If sculpture is accepted for exhibition, you must provide a pedestal of appropriate scale and height, painted a solid white (matte) finish. Fragile free-standing works must have a Plexiglass cube cover with the pedestal. The Fair will provide a case for jewelry items.

- 6. Receiving Mailed/Shipped Works of Art: Mailed/Shipped works of art must be received in the Fair Office by Thursday, June 20, 5 pm. Prepaid, return postage and insurance must accompany entries. Make checks payable to Marin County Fair.
- 7. Sales: Please indicate sale price or not for sale (N.F.S.) on entry form. Marin County Fair will retain a 20% commission. Sales will be handled through the Fair Office. Artists will be paid by check approximately three weeks following the Fair. Sales Price may not be changed after entry form has been submitted.
- 8. Liability:
  - a. Although reasonable efforts will be undertaken to safeguard exhibitors' property against loss, damage or theft, neither the County of Marin nor the Marin County Fair will be responsible for any loss, damage or theft of exhibitors' property brought on the premises during the period of the Marin County Fair. Every precaution will be taken in the handling and exhibiting of work; however, the Exhibits must be picked up on Release Day. The Fair does not guarantee the safety of any artwork not picked up on Release Day.
  - b. Work held over 5 days after release date will become the property of the Marin County Fair and may be sold or donated to defray storage costs.
- 9. Removal of Work: Accepted works, including those sold during the Fair, shall not be removed from the exhibition until Fair closes.
